

BLACK

HISTORY

MONTH

2021
EVENTS

FEB 10

DISPARITIES IN HEALTHCARE DURING THE PANDEMIC

FEBRUARY 10 • 4 P.M.

marshall.edu/woodsonlyceum

HHOMA executive director and chair of the WV COVID-19 Advisory Commission on African American Disparities, Jill Upson, will be a panelist to discuss disparities in health care during the pandemic as part of Marshall University's Black History Month events.

FEB 13

BLACK HISTORY LECTURE SERIES: BLACK HISTORY AND THE LEGAL SYSTEM

FEBRUARY 13 • 5 P.M.

facebook.com/WVHHOMA

Attorney Elliot Hicks will explore how laws and the legal system have impacted African Americans.

FEB 19

WORLD DAY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE PANEL DISCUSSION

FEBRUARY 19 • 3 P.M.

Shepherd University

Executive Director Upson will be a panelist to discuss what HHOMA is doing to make change in WV Communities.

FEB 21

BLACK HISTORY LECTURE SERIES: BLACK HISTORY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

FEBRUARY 21 • 5 P.M.

facebook.com/WVHHOMA

Thaddaus Breckenridge II will explore the history of economic self-sufficiency and prosperity in the African American community.

FEB 25

MEET THE AUTHOR!

FEBRUARY 25 • 5 P.M.

facebook.com/WVHHOMA

Vicky Moon discusses her book on Charles Town, WV's Sylvia Rideoutt Bishop, the first licensed African American female racehorse trainer in the United States.

FEB 27

ANNUAL TRAILBLAZER AWARDS GALA

FEBRUARY 27 • 7 P.M.

facebook.com/WVHHOMA

HHOMA will conclude Black History Month with this exciting event honoring West Virginians within minority communities that exhibit a life of excellence in service.

Herbert
Henderson
Office of Minority Affairs

@WVHHOMA • minorityaffairs.wv.gov • (304) 356-2023