You are invited to attend a community discussion on the topic of communities of color and domestic violence. The purpose of this forum include the following:

- To discuss the impact of domestic violence on communities of color
- To examine how cultural values influence domestic violence
- To formulate action steps on how we can better educate the community and end domestic violence

Supporters:
Charleston Black Ministerial Alliance
Charleston Police Department
Kanawha Institute for Social Research & Action (KISRA)
West Virginia Coalition for Minority Health
West Virginia State University
YWCA-Resolve Family Abuse Program